

IRONVILLE & CODNOR PARK

Where today in the twenty-first century old and new blend together nicely . . .

King William Street
Ironville

King William Street
Ironville

Forge Row

Lu Jeffery

Parson's Cottage

Lu Jeffery

Ironville House

Site of historic C18th model village of national importance . . . providing a blend of heritage and modern housing to suite most people.

An illustration from the Time Team's episode on Codnor Castle on Channel 4 by Victor Ambrus.

Duchess of Sutherland passes through Codnor Park and Ironville. Many historic trains can also be seen at the local railway centre.

A Nostalgic soundtrack from the past.

Geoff Griffiths

Clowns Children's Centre
"The nursery is a very bright and attractive space where all children are welcome." (Ofsted)

Ironville and Codnor Park School
Where pupils have positive attitudes to their learning and they feel safe. (Ofsted)

Ironville & Codnor Park are surrounded by beautiful countryside with wonderful panoramic views and signposted walks

Ironville & Codnor Park Action Group
Come and join in the fun ...

funday
various fundraising events
table top sales

Kool Kreatives (art & craft club) Sats 1-3 From Jan 3rd Church Hall)
children's Christmas party cuppa n chat (Wed 1-3 Community Centre)

join the group, be a volunteer, have fun? ring Sally 07974 785624

Great Fishing, nature walks and plenty of wildlife to see at Codnor Park Reservoir

Our local PCSO Meikel Miller works very closely with our local community, helping to solve police related problems and improve the quality of life for everyone. Contact her on 101, when needed.

Many community & social activities in the facilities below including: Craft Club, Taekwondo, Heritage Days, Skittles, Snooker, Dancing etc.

Church Hall next to Anvil Club

Christ Church

Crossings Club

Carriages Youth Club

Victoria Crescent
Community Centre